

Amilcar Petroleum Operations is seeking candidates for "Electrical Technician" position.

Sfax based, (duties at Offshore Platform, Terminal and remote sites).

Please send your application: Resume, cover letter, and the supporting documents by email to recrutements@apo.com.tn

The job title and reference number "Electrical Technician – Ref: APO Ad. 01/2021" must be added to the subject line of the email

The deadline for submission of applications is March 28th 2021

Electrical Technician— Ref: APO Ad. 01/2021

The purpose of the Electrical Technician role is to ensure efficient overhaul, coordination, installation, maintenance and continuous improvement of plant electrical systems and equipment to required standards.

The Electrical Technician is responsible, under the direction of Electrical supervisor to run safely:

- Hasdrubal Terminal plant including gas sweetening, compression, gas dehydration, NGL, LPG fractionation and condensate stabilization / storage.
- Platform including gas / oil wells, separation and chemical injection.
- Ben Sahloun Metering station remotely commended from Hasdrubal Terminal control room.

The position reports to the Electrical supervisor.

Key Accountabilities

- Ensure all activities are conducted in accordance with agreed Health, Safety and Environment practices and procedures as outlined in the Plant Management System.
- Support efforts to ensure all relevant activities are conducted with due consideration of HSE issues and in accordance with agreed procedures.
- Fault find, repair, install, commission and maintain all levels of electrical systems and circuits.
- Perform authorised switching of the Refinery H.V. and L.V. Distribution system.
- Carry out safeguarding, preventative, predictive and corrective maintenance and checks throughout the plants.
- Estimate, plan, organise and obtain resources to efficiently complete activities under personal control.
- Liaise with operations and maintenance teams, and consult with team members as required, in order to prioritise tasks.
- Maintain and be accountable for good and effective time keeping.
- Coordinate team scheduling and priorities.
- Coordinate team improvement activities, handles team difficulties, takes part in recruitment and undertakes long-term team development.
- Coordinate contractors, contracts and shutdown work.
- As a Performing Authority, prepare Permit to Work request and associated documents, RA and COSHH assessment as required by the activity.
- Assist vendor in the maintenance of major equipment.
- Perform equipment electrical isolation, within his level of authorisation, for maintenance jobs preparation.
- Perform Ex equipment inspection (visual, closed and detailed).
- Prepare spare parts required for the implementation of his activities and highlights any shortage or discrepancy to his Supervisor for remedial actions.
- Play the role of Helideck Landing Officer HLO & COXSWAIN as required.

Unique Knowledge, Skills, Experience and Attribute

- Baccalaureate completed + Successful minimum two years in the university with Electrical background (Senior technician diploma, ISET or Equivalent).
- Min three (03) years' experience in oil & Gas Operations.
- Adequate qualification in Electrical discipline.
- Thorough knowledge of Electrical equipment and power control system used in oil and gas industry.
- Basic knowledge and understanding of the maintenance cost structure and ability to identify areas of maintenance cost savings.
- Computer literacy - including MS Office, Maximo and SAP preferred.
- Ability to communicate fluently in English, both written and spoken.
- Collaboration & Team working skills.
- High ethical standards with integrity.

Work Pattern

- Normal working hours: 5/2 regime.
- You may be required to undertake visits to offshore Platform and remote sites interventions from time to time as required.

